MARCH/APRIL REVIEWS

2009 Brindabella Hills Riesling

"The riesling is intensely aromatic, with lime and lemon-like varietal character; an intense, lime-like palate backs up the first impressions, finishing long and bone dry – a classy riesling, with good cellaring potential."

Chris Shanahan, Canberra Times

2009 Cuttaway Hill Sauvignon Blanc

"A zesty, lively wine on bouquet and palate alike, the flavours ranging through herb, citrus and gooseberry, the finish bright and crisp."

92 POINTS James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion

2008 Hay Shed Hill Cabernet Merlot

"There's much to like about this cut above cabernet merlot blend. Has the juicy rich plump blended fruit but the use of oak and the natural tannins have given it terrific structure akin to a wine of higher price. Outstanding value here."

92 POINTS, Ray Jordan The West Australian

2007 Longview Devils Elbow Cabernet Sauvignon

"A particularly good cabernet, transcending the vintage and its alcohol, for it is a cedary, medium-bodied wine with delicious blackcurrant fruit and persistent but superfine tannins."

92 POINTS James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion

2009 Michelle Richardson Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc

"Pure and concentrated wine with an ethereal texture promoting drinkability. Delicately pungent Sauvignon with a perfect balance of soft acidity giving a dry and lingering finish."

4 STARS, Bob Campbell MW Gourmet Traveller Wine

CLIFFORD BAY SAUVIGNON BLANC WINS YET ANOTHER TROPHY

Marlborough's own Clifford Bay have continued their run of Sauvignon Blanc show success with a Trophy at New Zealand's pre-eminent wine show, the 2010 New Zealand Royal Easter Show Wine Awards for their newly released 2009 Clifford Bay Sauvignon Blanc.

This result comes as no surprise seeing as the wine came from the highly touted 2009 vintage and has already garnered a glowing Five Star rating from Winestate Magazine. This follows up from the award-winning 2008 Clifford Bay Sauvignon Blanc which took out three trophies at the 2009 International Wine Competition (UK), including Best International Sauvignon Blanc.

The 2009 Clifford Bay Sauvignon Blanc is now available so please see your Young & Rashleigh sales representative for a sample of this award winning wine.

GRANT BURGE RELEASE CORRYTON PARK CABERNET SAUVIGNON

It looks like being the maker of some of Australia's best Shiraz isn't enough for Grant Burge, who, this month releases the eagerly awaited addition to his "Wines of Distinction" range with the new 2009 Corryton Park Cabernet Sauvignon. With a nod towards the iconic wines of Bordeaux, Grant has always relished the idea of making one of Australia's best Bordeaux style blends and now he finally is ready to do so with the introduction of fruit from Corryton Park, one of the best Cabernet vineyards in all the Barossa and Eden Valleys.

Originally purchased in 2000 by Grant, the Corryton Park vineyard is one of the highest and coolest in the Barossa region and provides perfect conditions for first class Cabernet with great finesse, depth and complexity. The site is planted to Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Petit Verdot and has been a major component of the Grant Burge Shadrach since 2004.

The wine is line priced with his Filsell Shiraz, Holy Trinity Grenache Shiraz Mourvedre and Balthasar Shiraz Viognier in the "Wines of Distinction" range and means that those lucky enough to get some will be getting Shadrach fruit for a much cheaper price with this wine. Get in fast!
